

SAVAGE'S WHIRLWIND
TOUR OF THEATRESHow He Saw Nine Shows in Eight Cities in Seven Countries in a Week.

HADN'T PLANNED IT OUT

Schedule for Friends Who Could Hardly Credit
His Story.

Henry W. Savage, who returned from Europe on Wednesday with a story that he had established a sort of record for theatrical producers in witnessing six plays in six consecutive days in six cities in six countries, had a number of doubting Thomases on his hands yesterday afternoon who wanted to know just how he did it. Mr. Savage had done even better. He said it was nine productions in eight cities in seven countries in seven days and one night. Here is how Mr. Savage broke the theatrical play seeing record, as he described it.

Just How He Did It.

Left San Sebastian, Spain, at 10:11 on Sunday night, October 5, on the Madrid Express after witnessing a theatrical performance. Arrived in Paris at 12:05 P. M., on Monday. Saw a performance that night. On Tuesday morning had a play read to him by the author and on the same day attended a matinee. Left Paris at 8:05 on Tuesday night, and arrived in Milan, Italy, the following morning. Saw a matinee. Left Milan on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening and arrived in Munich, Bavaria, at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday morning, where a special performance of an opera with full orchestra was run through at 8:30 o'clock. At 10:25 o'clock caught the Orient Express and reached Vienna, Austria, at 2:57 o'clock on the afternoon of the same day. Witnessed a play that night and rested most of the next day, Friday. Left Vienna on Friday night on the Berlin Express and reached Berlin at 10:11 on Saturday morning. Witnessed a performance and then went to Magdeburg, where he witnessed a Sunday matinee. Returned to Berlin on Sunday night and at 10:11 took the Nord Express for Calais and reached London at 7:05 on Monday night, in time to attend an evening performance.

Hadn't Planned It in Advance.

"You see, I was in Spain, France, Italy, Bavaria, Austria, Germany and England in a little more than a week," said Mr. Savage, "and in that time I not only witnessed one play a day but saw two in Germany."

He had not planned to make such a rapid break in his tour. He intended to remain in Europe for at least three weeks more, but business called him home and the hustle was necessary to complete his schedule. He used the express train and the performances he witnessed. That would disclose his plans, he said, and perhaps suggest the most productions to other managers and producers.

PREJUDICE, SAYS CHINA.

Ambassador Tells America It Knows
Little of Japan.

Viscount China, Japanese Ambassador to the United States, in a speech before the Japan Society yesterday expressed his regret at what he termed the misunderstandings between his country and the United States. The occasion was a luncheon at the Lawyers Club, 115 Broadway, given by the society in honor of Dr. M. Anesaki, recently appointed to a chair in Harvard University.

"I don't think I ought to avail myself of this opportunity to speak," said the Ambassador, "as I do not think I should talk on the subject which you all expect me to discuss. My remarks will of necessity be desultory."

After paying a tribute to Dr. Anesaki, Viscount China said:

"America knows little of Japan. There is a common prejudice against the Japanese. Prejudices are due to two causes, malice and ignorance. The first cannot be remedied, the second can. I have read many things in your newspapers which threaten the great friendship of these two nations. Even trivial acts are magnified."

CORDELIA LEE'S DEBUT.

First Appearance of Another Violin
Pupil of Leopold Auer.

Cordelia Lee, violinist, gave a recital yesterday afternoon in Aeolian Hall. Miss Lee comes from the Dakotas and is a pupil of the distinguished master, Leopold Auer, teacher of Elman, Zimbalist and Krumpholtz. Her father, Dr. Lee, played Handel's sonata in D major, the perennial Bruch concerto in G minor, Saint Saens' "Havaneise," Hubay's "Zephyr," Bach's canon, the Schott "Ave Maria" and Wieniawski's "Souvenir de Moscow."

The young woman's concert disclosed the presence of an unquestionable talent, paired with a want of artistic ripeness. It would be difficult to decide whether another year with the master would have eliminated some of the rawness of style or whether experience and artistic growth will do the work better. At present Miss Lee has more temper than artistic judgment, more boldness than finish, more dash than dignity.

Some of her intonation was sadly faulty and some of her bowing was unkind to the gentle instrument on which she played. Her reading of the Bruch music was greatly over-sentimentalized, but in the Bach number she showed to more advantage the excellence of her schooling. Artists are made, not born. The greatest musical gifts come to naught if not nurtured by patient criticism and humble devotion. Miss Lee may have a future, but yesterday's recital indicated the immediate need of attention to the intellectual side of her art.

WEDDINGS.

Sayer—Ayres.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Miss Margaret Wilson Ayres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ayres, of Middletown, was married to-day to Mr. Charles Sayer, a lawyer of this city, who was married to-night in the home of the bride here by the Rev. E. Vanduyke Wright. Miss Ayres is the daughter of a prominent family in Middletown. Mr. Sayer is the son of a prominent family in Middletown.

MILLEN-GAYLEY Wedding Nov. 6.

Mrs. Gardiner Gayley has sent out invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Agnes Mabel Gayley, to Gerish H. Milken, on Thursday afternoon, November 6, in the Church of the Ascension. Bishop David H. Greer will perform the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector of the church. Miss Florence Gayley will be her sister's maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Janet Dana and Miss Marie Russell.

Dr. Seth M. Milken, Jr., will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be Harold A. Hatch, Seth M. Milken, Jr., a cousin, and the Reverend, Abel L. Smith, Jr., John T. Gillespie, Henry L. Hutton, Reine Martin, Ernest T. Tefft and Duncan Sterling. Count and Countess Giulio Senni, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, will come from Rome for the wedding. A small reception will follow at 20 Washington Square.

Miss Edith Wormer Engaged.

The engagement is announced from Paris of Miss Edith Wormer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Wormer, Jr., of this city, to Matthew Godchaux of Paris. Miss Wormer's father is a member of the family of the prominent name in the financial world of this city. Mr. Godchaux has been very successful with his racing stables and is noted as a sportsman. His father has large interests in the steel and iron industries both in France and Belgium. The wedding will take place late in December.

WILLS AND APPRAISALS.

BENJAMIN BURKHIMER, member of the hosiery firm of P. J. Burkheimer of 558 Broadway, who died last night at his home, left $21,000 outright and all his insurance money and personal property to his widow, Mrs. Flora Burkheimer. She also got four-fifths of the residuary estate in which the father may dispose of half in her will. The other half goes to the decedent's brothers and other heirs. Jacob Burkheimer, a brother, gets one-tenth, and the rest is divided between Joseph and Leon Burkheimer, brothers.

HELEN PARISH BOWDIN, who was the wife of Temple Bowdin and died on August 9, 1912, left an estate of $180,286, of which $118,281 went to her son, George
B. Bowdin, and the rest to her husband.
She had jewels worth $19,070, including an $8,000 necklace, $1,000 diamond ring, $1,000 dog collar of pearls and a leaf brooch containing twenty-five diamonds worth $1,200. She had a Russian sable coat and muff worth $5,000. The bulk of the estate consisted of securities worth $163,253.

HOWARD LAPSLEY, who died September 28, left $2,000 each to two sons and a daughter, but gave nothing to his son John Willard Lapsley, because he has received his share. The testator also cancelled the son's note for $25,773. The residuary estate went to the widow, Katherine A. W. Lapsley, for life, and on her death goes to the children.

MARGARETHA MENKEN, who died October 9 at 154 West 101st street, left her estate in equal shares to her son, August, and daughter, Margaret Feldman.

HESTER ADELAIDE DUNHAM, who died September 11, left half her estate to Roman C. Richardson, a son, and the rest to William and Melvin J. Dunham, nephews.

MR. WERRENATH SINGS.

An Interesting Concert by One of the Best Local Artists.

Renald Werrenath, baritone, gave a concert of songs in Aeolian Hall last evening. This young American has not yet made himself known to lovers of good singing. He has earned his spurs and belongs to the brightest of his art. Those who go to his concerts city and away will have lovely recollections. Not only does Mr. Werrenath sing with an ease and the worth of every song he sings, but he is tireless in his search after new material of interest and of fine quality in presenting it.

His programme last evening was far from the madding rill of the conventional recital. The composers who were represented were: Schubert, Schumann, Brahms, Wagner, Strauss, and others.

The three songs of Schubert were heard for the first time in this country. The composer who was represented in which they stood on the programme: Hans Hermann, Joseph Marx, Willibald Richter, Arnold Schoenberg, Walter Kratzer, Dennis Taylor, Carl Busch, Frank La Forge, Morris Class, Bruno Huhn and Villers Stanford.

The three songs of Schoenberg were heard for the first time in this country. The composer who was represented in which they stood on the programme: Hans Hermann, Joseph Marx, Willibald Richter, Arnold Schoenberg, Walter Kratzer, Dennis Taylor, Carl Busch, Frank La Forge, Morris Class, Bruno Huhn and Villers Stanford.

TEXAS BREAKS A VALVE STEM.

Dreadnought's Speed Tests Interrupted by Accident.

ROCKLAND, Me., Oct. 23.—The new dreadnought Texas, the largest battleship yet constructed for the United States Navy, met with a breakdown in her engine room during her standardization runs to-day, which necessitated a postponement of the tests until Sunday at least. The trouble was due to the snapping of a valve stem in one of the low-pressure cylinders when the powerful warship was steaming at a speed of 21 knots an hour.

The Texas had been out for three runs at each of the speeds of 19, 21, 23, 25, 27, 29, 31, 33, 35, 37, 39, 41, 43, 45, 47, 49, 51, 53, 55, 57, 59, 61, 63, 65, 67, 69, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, 83, 85, 87, 89, 91, 93, 95, 97, 99, 101, 103, 105, 107, 109, 111, 113, 115, 117, 119, 121, 123, 125, 127, 129, 131, 133, 135, 137, 139, 141, 143, 145, 147, 149, 151, 153, 155, 157, 159, 161, 163, 165, 167, 169, 171, 173, 175, 177, 179, 181, 183, 185, 187, 189, 191, 193, 195, 197, 199, 201, 203, 205, 207, 209, 211, 213, 215, 217, 219, 221, 223, 225, 227, 229, 231, 233, 235, 237, 239, 241, 243, 245, 247, 249, 251, 253, 255, 257, 259, 261, 263, 265, 267, 269, 271, 273, 275, 277, 279, 281, 283, 285, 287, 289, 291, 293, 295, 297, 299, 301, 303, 305, 307, 309, 311, 313, 315, 317, 319, 321, 323, 325, 327, 329, 331, 333, 335, 337, 339, 341, 343, 345, 347, 349, 351, 353, 355, 357, 359, 361, 363, 365, 367, 369, 371, 373, 375, 377, 379, 381, 383, 385, 387, 389, 391, 393, 395, 397, 399, 401, 403, 405, 407, 409, 411, 413, 415, 417, 419, 421, 423, 425, 427, 429, 431, 433, 435, 437, 439, 441, 443, 445, 447, 449, 451, 453, 455, 457, 459, 461, 463, 465, 467, 469, 471, 473, 475, 477, 479, 481, 483, 485, 487, 489, 491, 493, 495, 497, 499, 501, 503, 505, 507, 509, 511, 513, 515, 517, 519, 521, 523, 525, 527, 529, 531, 533, 535, 537, 539, 541, 543, 545, 547, 549, 551, 553, 555, 557, 559, 561, 563, 565, 567, 569, 571, 573, 575, 577, 579, 581, 583, 585, 587, 589, 591, 593, 595, 597, 599, 601, 603, 605, 607, 609, 611, 613, 615, 617, 619, 621, 623, 625, 627, 629, 631, 633, 635, 637, 639, 641, 643, 645, 647, 649, 651, 653, 655, 657, 659, 661, 663, 665, 667, 669, 671, 673, 675, 677, 679, 681, 683, 685, 687, 689, 691, 693, 695, 697, 699, 701, 703, 705, 707, 709, 711, 713, 715, 717, 719, 721, 723, 725, 727, 729, 731, 733, 735, 737, 739, 741, 743, 745, 747, 749, 751, 753, 755, 757, 759, 761, 763, 765, 767, 769, 771, 773, 775, 777, 779, 781, 783, 785, 787, 789, 791, 793, 795, 797, 799, 801, 803, 805, 807, 809, 811, 813, 815, 817, 819, 821, 823, 825, 827, 829, 831, 833, 835, 837, 839, 841, 843, 845, 847, 849, 851, 853, 855, 857, 859, 861, 863, 865, 867, 869, 871, 873, 875, 877, 879, 881, 883, 885, 887, 889, 891, 893, 895, 897, 899, 901, 903, 905, 907, 909, 911, 913, 915, 917, 919, 921, 923, 925, 927, 929, 931, 933, 935, 937, 939, 941, 943, 945, 947, 949, 951, 953, 955, 957, 959, 961, 963, 965, 967, 969, 971, 973, 975, 977, 979, 981, 983, 985, 987, 989, 991, 993, 995, 997, 999, 1001, 1003, 1005, 1007, 1009, 1011, 1013, 1015, 1017, 1019, 1
